

Jennifer Sowers is beginning her 10th year of teaching. She began her teaching career at Sacred Heart Cathedral Catholic School. As a teacher at Sacred Heart she taught Fourth, Sixth, Seventh, and Eighth Grades. After 4 years at Sacred Heart, she moved to Miller Elementary to teach First and Second Grades. She taught at Miller Elementary from 2011-2015.

This is her second year at Comanche Middle School and the second year in Special Education. Jennifer grew up in Dodge City and received her Bachelor's Degree in Elementary Education from Kansas State University. She is currently working on her Master's Degree in Special Education from Emporia State University.

Her family includes her husband, Rob; a daughter, Hannah who is a Freshman at the University of Sioux Falls in South Dakota; a son, Noah, who is a Junior at DCHS; and another son, Aidan, who is an 8th grader at DCMS. In her spare time she enjoys walking, baking, shopping, and watching her kids in their various activities.
