Personal

Hello, my name is Shala Waldman. I am excited to be a Comanche Coyote! I am enthralled by the atmosphere of a middle school and absolutely love the curriculum. I have high expectations for my students and enjoy watching their growth throughout the year. I have been married for twenty-six years to my wonderful husband Michael. We have two sons, Broderick and Logan whom attend college. The best reward of my day is upon returning home from school –greeting my dog Elliott. When I'm not at school I like to garden, ski with my family, read and of course go on long walks (with Elliott.)
