

Personal

My name is Lynn Nolte. I have bachelors, masters, and doctoral degrees in education and am a reading specialist. I have been married to my husband Harold since 2003. I have two daughters, Kristen (age 37), Kathryn (age 13) and two granddaughters, Brenna and Lila. I am a native Texan and have lived in Kansas since 2015. I teach READ 180 at Comanche Middle School. My teaching experience includes middle school, community college and university level experiences, but my favorite group to teach is middle school students. When I'm not at school, my family and I enjoy travel, family time, watching Kathryn play sports, and working in the yard.

Education

Stephen F. Austin State University, Texas 1984
Bachelors of Science
Stephen F. Austin State University, Texas 1988
Master's of Science
Texas A&M University – Commerce, Texas 1996
Doctor of Education

Professional

33rd year of teaching
2nd year in Dodge City

Professional License

English Language Arts 5-8 - Kansas
Secondary Education Reading – Texas
All Level Reading Specialist Certification - Texas