

General:

My name is Grace Wright, formerly known as Grace Kim. I got married on July 10, 2014 in Golden, Colorado to Jeff Wright. He is also a teacher at Comanche Middle School. We met at Kansas State University through our education program and moved to Dodge City in 2012 to start our teaching careers. We have an energetic baby boy named Joseph who is turning two in October. His big sister, Daisy the bloodhound, has already taught him a lot and they keep us on our toes! In February our family will be growing by one more and we can hardly wait.

Teaching:

This is my sixth year teaching 7th grade science and I absolutely love it! I am looking forward to an amazing school year and trying new labs and activities.
