

Lydia Podrebarac

Biographical Sketch

Mrs. Podrebarac teaches Pre-Algebra at CMS to both Antelope and Jayhawker team members. Mrs. Podrebarac grew up and graduated from Liberal High School. She graduated from Kansas State University with a Bachelor's Degree in Animal Science. She worked for the USDA in Liberal and as Meade County's Economic Development Director.

She furthered her education by graduating from Fort Hays State University in December 2008 with a Bachelor's Degree in Secondary Education. This is her eighth year with USD 443, formerly teaching Math at Dodge City Middle School.

She is married to Louis, an attorney and has one son Samuel who recently graduated from Wichita State University and is planning to attend law school, spring 2018. Her family has also hosted exchange students from New Zealand, Switzerland and Colombia which they consider to be family.